ABOUT LIZ

Liz is a powerhouse vocalist with an eclectic soulful sound that captivates audiences everywhere. She has performed for over 20 years as a singer, guitar player and dancer. Studying music performance and production at Berklee College of Music and at Columbia College in Chicago. Throughout her time as a performer she has played at venues such as House of Blues, the legendary Press Room in Portsmouth NH, the Stone Church Music Club and countless festivals including OM Fest in Vermont and the Chicago Blues Fest.

Her production and compositions showcase a wide range of influence. Described as “neo-soul meets radiohead’. She grew up inspired by; RnB, Vocal Jazz, French and Brazilian music, as well as Grunge and Punk music. She takes singer-songwriter to new dimensions and is constantly evolving to create even bigger productions and immersive experiences.
